

Descriptions for Promotions:

Short blurb: Did you know that you have the right to make decisions about your health care? This includes the right to accept or refuse medical or surgical treatment. You also have the right to plan and direct the types of health care you may receive in the event you become unable to express your wishes. You can do this by making an "Advance Directive". Addressing these issues may be difficult but it is necessary if you want others to follow your wishes. Participants will learn the types of Advance Directives in WI and how to access and file them.

Long blurb: Did you know that you have the right to make decisions about your health care? This includes the right to accept or refuse medical or surgical treatment. You also have the right to plan and direct the types of health care you may receive in the event you become unable to express your wishes. You can do this by making an "Advance Directive". Addressing these issues may be difficult but it is necessary if you want others to follow your wishes. Participants will learn the types of Advance Directives in WI and how to access and file them. After this session, participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge/understanding of the structure and process for implementing advance directives.
- Recognize how to select people who will be responsible for their affairs if they become incapacitated.